Nursing is a critical, complex, and special profession. The nurse administers therapy through nursing diagnosis and nursing interventions. Nursing diagnoses are patient problems that are identified and analyzed, and nursing interventions are those changes in approach and specific interventions that are used to alleviate or promote patient health. 2. The training of nurses is the basic requirement in the nursing profession. The American Nurses Association (ANA) Council on Standards for nurse training codifies this requirement in its document "National Guidelines for Accrediting Nurse Anesthesia Education Programs." 3. Nursing training must combine theory with practice; however, the type of practice at a hospital setting can be specified according to the ANA definition. 4. In this era of health care cost control, with changes in reimbursement, certification and licensure requirements for nurse practitioners and BSN programs, and other efforts to improve nursing standards, now is the time to take action.977 F.2d 575 NOTICE: Ninth Circuit Rule 36-3 provides that dispositions other than opinions or orders designated for publication are not precedential and should not be cited except when relevant under the doctrines of law of the case, res judicata, or collateral estoppel.UNITED STATES of America, Plaintiff-Appellee,v.Francisco CAMILO-CANO, Defendant-Appellant.
