Open Autodesk Autocad. Open the Properties sheet. Open the Options tab. Open the Settings tab. Uncheck AutoColor, AutoEdit, AutoZoom, and AutoRefresh. Click OK to apply your changes. Further resources There are some sites on the Internet that provide, for free, complete programs that will allow you to simulate, using a computer mouse, the movements of a pencil on paper for each of the above steps. This technique can be useful for learning and practicing before you get a real drafting table and drafting pencils, and for getting used to the motions of a pencil on paper before you start drawing.
