Welcome to Colabor.me. This application is a Colaborative Web Design Application, a project which aims to support the creation of online communities through a completely new type of web application. This project is currently in an early beta stage. It is free to use and allows you to create, view and participate in private, collaborative web-pages. What You Can Do In This Application: • Create a website page • View or collaborate on other pages created by users • Read new updates from the Colabor.me team • Add comments to your page Join Nifty-50's private messengers. Join our PM Discord server for all discussion on file sharing. Are you a developer? Introducing the Onlive Virtual Text platform. The Onlive Virtual Text platform gives developers the ability to create a second level interactive WebGL canvas within any HTML5 document. Create components such as text bubbles or sprites on a canvas, and through JavaScript, reposition or manipulate the content as it displays in any other HTML element. What is it? The Onlive Virtual Text platform gives developers the ability to create a second level interactive web component within any HTML5 document. Create components such as text bubbles or sprites on a canvas, and through JavaScript, reposition or manipulate the content as it displays in any other HTML element. Why is it cool? Because it's all JavaScript and CSS, no Flash or Silverlight required, they can be run on virtually any device, and it's absolutely free and open source. License The project is licensed under the MIT open source license. Thanks to the wonderful people at the Onlive team for providing this awesome library.

In a time when the stars were aligned to create a new world, Fate cursed humanity with a Void. Its indestructible nature is invincible, and its destructive power is without limit. The Void Rains Upon Her Heart (VRH) is a game that was created to allow you to experience the Void in an arcade-style shooting game on the PC. Those who are familiar with arcade style shoot 'em ups will surely find the VRH to be a great experience as we challenge all aspects of the genre including the bullets, power-ups, and field of view. The Void Rains Upon Her Heart is a new world of gun shooting, where the player will be in the role of the Void where there is no human, there are no bullets, and they must withstand the Void's unrelenting attacks. The player must defeat and destroy as much enemy bullets as they can to survive and escape the Void. Features: - Arcade Style Shooter Experience for the PC - Virtual Reality Support - High-Quality High Definition (1920×1080) Graphics - Visual Novel Experience for VR – All Power-Ups, Configurations, and Field of View – Difficulty Level Playable with a Controller and Keyboard – High-Resolution Soundtracks – Optional VR Headset Support – World-Wide Steam Network Support VRH is designed to be a true VR experience. We are utilizing both Oculus Rift and HTC Vive and plan to update the game to support even more head-mounted displays in the near future. The Void Rains Upon Her Heart is the second game from Zero Hope Games LLC and is the second installment in a series of games that will be developed with Valve's Source Engine. Zero Hope will utilize Steam Workshop content creation. Features: About This Game: In a time when the stars were aligned to create a new world, Fate cursed humanity with a Void.
