KHUTBAT E AHMADIYYA (IN UR D U) Khutbat e Usmani Published On: Jan 24, 2020 Buy this ebook now Khutbat e Usmani PDF Pakistani literature is more than 130 years old. In the last four decades, both Urdu and Persian literature has been the object of novel and scholarly appreciation. These two are very important sources of information on the historical and cultural background and the living situation of the people in Pakistan. In this innovative bilingual eBook, M. Dr. Jan Ali and C. Dr. Farrukh Chaudhary present the most neglected period of Pakistani literature. There are three chapters dedicated to each language, and chapters are based on the different socio-cultural groups, literary trends, the reception of Western ideas, and other topics. The first part of the book presents the historical and literary background of Urdu literature and its relation with Persian literature. The second part of the book presents the literary history of Persian literature and the way it has influenced Urdu literature, and the third part of the book is dedicated to the history of Urdu literature in the 20th century. The chapters are very interesting and enlightening. The book is a good tool for the appreciation of the history of Urdu literature. It is also an eye opener for the researchers and persons associated with the field of Urdu literature. For more informa- Khutbat e Usmani PDF Khutbat e Usmani PDF . Despite continued suppression, the Ahmadiyya Community continues its struggle for its human and fundamental rights. The community continues to face all sorts of persecution. The government continues its campaign against the Ahmadis, arrests and jails hundreds of Ahmadis and their leaders, and promotes the irredentist idea of a separate state.. Regardless of the existing domestic and international human rights challenges faced by the Ahmadiyya Community, religious tolerance continues to be a core value of the modern state of Pakistan..
