In this video, the host plays the song "The Autumn Leaves" (by Billie Holiday), and uses the word "refrain" in a way which I've never seen. In at least one instance, he says the word in the sense of "observe". While I've searched for additional examples of the word "refrain" in this way, I haven't found any. A: A "refrain" is usually a deliberate return to a melody or rhythm, but not necessarily. There are a few other ways, such as the "passacaglia" that Durand employs in this video. You are also able to employ key changes to change
